This is formal notice that we have enrolled our child(ren) in Elm Grove Lutheran School for the 2008-2009 school year. By enrolling our child we recognize our commitment:

1. To aid and assist our child through Christian example and through parental support, to grow in an understanding of Jesus' love and God's will in their lives. We also recognize our responsibility and commit to be active in church attendance, partake of the Lord's Supper, and participate in Bible Study.
2. To demonstrate parental support of Christian education by volunteering and being involved in school activities as much as possible. To support the activities of the Elm Grove Lutheran School Parent Teacher League. To support the efforts of the classroom teacher and staff in helping our child to grow spiritually, academically, physically, and emotionally.
3. To be involved in our home congregation as active members and supporters of the total mission of the congregation.
4. To support our home congregation with our time, talents, and treasures as God has blessed us. To fulfill our financial obligations to Elm Grove Lutheran School for all assessed fees and tuition.

Formal notification of enrollment will result in a statement of tuition being sent to our congregation according to the congregational Christian Education Program Policy.
